Now you can reach referral sources across the country with Canada's leading legal publications Law Times and Canadian Lawyer.

Law Times reaches over 10,300 readers in print and 8,800 in digital, while Canadian Lawyer has a distribution of 24,000 print readers and 14,700 digital. The readership of these publications is the ideal audience for your services. In fact, our 2017 readership survey shows that 17% of readers have investigated a product, firm or service after seeing them in our publications and a further 5% have made a referral. What's more — 1 in 4 of our readers are directly involved in procuring expert witnesses.

If your focus is within Ontario your best option would be Law Times. If you are looking for national exposure Canadian Lawyer has you covered. For the most comprehensive reach, why not choose a cost-effective combination of both?
